

1. Medicare could have a “score” on you and/or your practice known as the “Provider Error Rate”.
 - a. True
 - b. False
2. According to the 2014 CERT reporting period for DMEPOS, ____% of improper payments were due to insufficient documentation
 - a. 20
 - b. 43
 - c. 92
 - d. 100
3. When _____ is cited as a reason for use of DMEPOS, the exact nature of the deformity or medical problem should be clear from the medical evidence submitted.
 - a. Community involvement
 - b. Return to home
 - c. Safety when walking
 - d. Restoration of function
4. In order to help produce useful doctors notes, one simple question the doctor can ask the patient about the prosthesis or orthosis is “What is the manner in which the device will restore or improve bodily function?”
 - a. True
 - b. False
5. When medical records are altered and the original wording is completely obscured it could be ____?
 - a. No big deal
 - b. A red flag
 - c. Grounds for litigation
 - d. None of the above
6. When P&O practitioners document the functional need for the design feature of a component it’s important for them to _____?
 - a. Use template language that is not patient specific
 - b. Use as much technical jargon as possible
 - c. Write as much as possible
 - d. Be concise, use plain language, and be as patient specific as possible
7. One way to get better doctors notes may be
 - a. Asking every day
 - b. Giving the doctor a template with check boxes
 - c. Engaging the patient with decision making tools and goal setting
 - d. There is no way, just give up
8. CMS has stated it’s intent to “weight patient experience and patient reported outcomes in value based purchasing programs”
 - a. True
 - b. False
9. CMS is promoting shared decision making
 - a. True
 - b. False
10. Engaged patients could lead to better doctors notes as they are empowered to communicate preferences to their doctors.
 - a. True
 - b. False

For ABC credit please send name, answers, certification number, and office location to Molly McCoy at mmccoy@spsco.com. Credits will be submitted to ABC quarterly. Must score at least 80% correct for credits